KEY BUILDING BLOCKS OF AWANA MINISTRIES

All new leaders are encouraged to attend Awana Basics today.

Attend the Awana Basics in Workshop 1-4, and choose your preferred club breakout in Workshop 5.

ROOM	TITLE/DESCRIPTION	PRESENTER	FOCUS
------	-------------------	-----------	-------

Workshop 1 – 8:40-9:40am

Kidz Planet Auditorium 317	What is Awana? & Gospel Urgency	John Didlake Sidney Yen	New Leaders, Veteran Leaders who want refresher training
	This workshop includes an overview of the Awana ministry, its mission, its purpose, and focus. We will also convey the heart of Awana, the basic structure of the program, and how that structure can fit into various churches. The workshop also teaches the value and urgency of the Gospel, and principles in sharing the Gospel using a versatile tool that works with anyone, anywhere, in any situation.

Workshop 2 – 9:50-10:50am

Kidz Planet Auditorium 317	Leadership Matters & Club Demonstration	John Didlake Sharon Yen	New Leaders, Veteran Leaders who want refresher training
	This workshop begins with an exploration and discussion of the importance, characteristics and responsibilities of good leaders. Learn how leaders can continuously grow in their role. This workshop also demonstrates a club setting, helping new leaders recognize their responsibilities during each segment. You'll role play as both children and leaders during this time.

Workshop 3 – 1:00-1:55pm

Kidz Planet Auditorium 317	Large Group Time & Small Group Time	Sharon Yen Sidney Yen	New Leaders, Veteran Leaders who want refresher training
	This workshop will explain the purpose of Large Group Time to help leaders develop strategies in presenting effective, impactful lessons. This workshop will also equip leaders with an understanding of how to run a healthy small group, with a goal to make life-long disciples of Jesus.

Workshop 4 – 2:05-3:00pm

Kidz Planet Auditorium 317	Welcome and Dismissal & Game Time	John Didlake Sharon Yen	New Leaders, Veteran Leaders who want refresher training
	This workshop will show how a well-planned welcome and dismissal can get club off to a strong start and end with anticipation for the following week. This workshop will also explain the 'Why?' of Game Time and how a well-organized Game Time is an integral part of an effective club.

Workshop 4 – 2:05-3:00pm

318	Trek & Journey (Middle School & High School)	Cindy Vesperman	New Trek & Journey Leaders, Veteran Leaders who want refresher training
	As a new Trek or Journey Leader, you will develop and understand the components of the Awana Youth Ministry curriculum and how to apply techniques for effectively engaging middle school students (Trek) and high school students (Journey) to make life-long disciples of Jesus.

Workshop 5 – 3:10-4:00pm

316	Puggles and Cubbies (Preschool)	Marlene Hunnicutt	New Puggles & Cubbies Leaders, and Veteran Leaders who want refresher training
	As a new Puggles and/or Cubbies Leader, this combined training will help you develop an understanding of how to use the curriculum and discover strategies to help you engage and disciple the youngest Awana clubbers: Puggles ages 2-3, and Cubbies ages 4-5.
Kidz Jr 324	Sparks Clubs (Early Elementary)	Karl Sauter	New Sparks Leaders, Veteran Leaders who want refresher training
	This workshop will help new leaders develop an understanding of how to use the Sparks curriculum and strategies to engage with the early elementary children. This workshop will also discuss the necessity of a well-disciplined program and learn how the five-count, three-count, and positive points system applies to an effective club.
Kidz Planet Auditorium 317	T&T Club (Upper Elementary)	John Didlake Sidney Yen	New T&T Leaders, Veteran Leaders who want refresher training
	This training will teach new leaders how to use the T&T curriculum and strategies to engage T&T age kids in discipleship. The second half of this workshop will discuss the necessity of a well-disciplined program and learn the five-count, three-count, and positive points system applies to an effective club.
Café 254	Game Director Basics	Tyler Flowers	New Game Directors, Veterans who want refresher training
	This is for new Game Directors and a refresher for experienced Game Directors. Learn standard Awana Game Square games with variations, along with Game Square discipline, points and scoring, and team spirit fun to keep it exciting for kids and leaders.

[workshop 1]

Chapel 250	Does Your Church Know the Awana American Child? Featured Workshop	Valerie Bell	Everyone
	When you see your clubbers, do you wonder what their lives are like outside of those couple of hours a week? Are there signs you're seeing, but don't know what they mean? Come learn what a shifting church, family and secular culture mean to children's lives today, and why kids' futures need to be grounded in discipleship, not just kid programming.
251	Effectively Reaching Kids with the Newest T&T	Dwight Hunnicutt	Kidmin Staff Awana Ministry Directors, T&T
	Has your club already transitioned to the new T&T curriculum? Are you still struggling with the transition? We all need to remember with whom we are engaging each week. Ministry should be centered on the kids, who they are and what they need. Your ministry will be more effective if you understand those you are discipling.
252	Sharing the Gospel: Highly Relational, Highly Biblical	Facilitator Suzanne Didlake	Everyone
	The gospel is at the very core and foundation of Awana. As believers, we are called to share the gospel, but we don't always feel comfortable doing it. In this video workshop, learn from Ed Gossien, VP of US Field Operations for Awana. You will have a chance to get comfortable using your faith story to communicate salvation to children in a way that is highly relational and highly biblical.
253	Understanding Honor-Shame and Freedom-Guilt Worldviews	Bruce Green	Everyone
	The greatest blind spots have to do with one's own worldview, which can lead to judgmental attitudes toward others. Since the Bible was largely written in an honor-shame context, we are in danger of Scripture twisting if we only use the western Guilt-Freedom filters. Come learn the stumbling blocks of ignoring worldview differences when sharing your faith.
Cafe 254	Think Outside the Game Square: Games that Work Anywhere	Tyler Flowers	Game Directors
	Where we're going we don't need a game square, but it can help. Experience non-traditional and creative games to liven up Game Time so your older kids will not just want to come each week, but will want to bring new friends to experience the fun and excitement (and sweatiness).

[8:40-9:40]

ROOM	TITLE/DESCRIPTION	PRESENTER	FOCUS
255	Unpacking Scripture Using Homiletics	Jim Schultz	Everyone
	Homiletics is for everyone who wants to study & understand God's word. It is a tool to help analyze a passage of scripture to more fully understand what God is saying to His people (you!). It is also an effective tool for helping to create a message that relates God's word to your audience.
314	Positive Discipline for Preschoolers	Sandi Flowers	Preschool, Puggles, Cubbies
	Preschoolers are amazing, but tears and tantrums will happen. Come look together at preschoolers' abilities and limitations, as well as what we need to do to be successful in working with them using a positive approach that is consistent, caring, and sensitive. Learn lots of creative ideas for your preschool ministry, including ideas for special needs children.
316	Connecting with Parents	Marlene Hunnicutt	Everyone
	The Awana ministry is about reaching kids ... and their families. You want to connect with parents, but what do you talk about? How do you become their friend? How do you let them know you care? This workshop has ideas to connect with parents and support them in the discipleship of their kids.
Kidz Planet Auditorium 317	Awana Basics What is Awana? & Gospel Urgency	John Didlake Sidney Yen	New Leaders, Veteran Leaders who want refresher training
	This workshop includes an overview of the Awana ministry, its mission, its purpose, and focus. We will also convey the heart of Awana, the basic structure of the program, and how that structure can fit into various churches. The workshop also teaches the value and urgency of the Gospel, and principles in sharing the Gospel using a versatile tool that works with anyone, anywhere, in any situation.
318	Small but Mighty: Small Club Solutions	Cindy Vesperman	Pastors, KidMin Staff Awana Ministry Directors,
	We want kids to succeed and experience all that Awana offers. There are ways that you can adapt your program to make your current challenges an opportunity for your kids. Uncover the advantages and disadvantages of serving in small Awana clubs and look at ways to meet small club needs.
Kidz Jr. 324	Gospel Confusion	Karl Sauter	Everyone
	Exactly what is the gospel? The Gospel Wheel organizes key verses to explain the gospel more clearly to our clubbers, friends, and neighbors. Many popular gospel invitations use jargon that is unfamiliar to the unchurched. Learn gospel invitations that clearly lead an interested person to place their trust in Christ for eternal life.

[workshop 2]

Chapel 250	How to Memorize the Bible	Tom Meyer	Everyone
	Memorize large passages of the Word of God? Yes! Your workshop leader has memorized over 10 books of the Bible and speaks them from the heart full time with Wordsower Ministries. Learn techniques to help your clubbers and yourself hide large passages of God's Word in your heart. (Repeated in Workshop 5)
251	Maximizing Your Middle School Ministry with Trek	Marie Ung	Trek Youth Leaders
	Are you using Trek to help your middle school students understand how their story connects to God's story? Come learn the major issues to address with your middle schoolers and how their unique age-group characteristics offer the opportunity to take these years head on with God's Word and the Trek curriculum.
252	Recruit, Retain, Equip Volunteers	Facilitator Suzanne Didlake	Kidmin Staff Awana Ministry Directors, Club Directors
	Whether you need Large Group teachers, Small Group leaders, or Game Directors, in this video workshop you will learn the seven keys that will help you activate and retain dedicated and excited volunteers in your club.
253	How to Evangelize Muslims Without Extraction	Bruce Green	Everyone
	'Bridge Building' is an approach to build trust with Muslims in order to have productive two-way communication. Will your words or actions build bridges or barriers? Barrier-building results in "Christianizing" and extraction. Bridge Building results in true evangelism. Come learn how to build bridges to the Kingdom of God.
255	The Craft of Storytelling	Jim Schultz	Large Group Leaders, Small Group Leaders All Ages
	Have you ever had an awesome idea for Large Group time or an anecdote to captivate your small group? Did the idea fizzle out or were you able to craft it into a teachable story? Did your story end up fizzling out anyway? Come learn how Jesus told stories so you can transform your storytelling and impact children like never before.
256	The Electronic Awana Secretary	Larry Chapman	Secretaries
	Want to have an 'Electronic Secretary' handling the details of club? ARK is a record-keeping program to keep track of attendance, dues, addresses, etc. It also tracks what sections each clubber has passed each week. Learn all about this software through demonstration and discussion. We will also discuss MOZO.

[9:50-10:50]

ROOM	TITLE/DESCRIPTION	PRESENTER	FOCUS
314	Teaching Preschoolers to Memorize Scripture	Sandi Flowers	Preschool, Cubbies
	Awana provides great resources to help you disciple preschoolers through Scripture memory. In this workshop you will discover tips and helpful insight to make Scripture memory go smoothly and stick with Preschoolers.
316	Leaders that Stick	Facilitator Marlene Hunnicutt	Everyone
	Engaged leaders stay. Learn why equipping and empowering leaders is so important, some new ways to do it, and why it matters so much to leader retention. Hear (via video) from leaders who describe how they felt when they were equipped, engaged, and committed to keep serving for the long term.
Kidz Planet Auditorium 317	Awana Basics Leadership Matters & Club Demonstration	John Didlake Sharon Yen	New Leaders, Veteran Leaders who want refresher training
	This workshop begins with an exploration and discussion of the importance, characteristics and responsibilities of good leaders. Learn how leaders can continuously grow in their role. This workshop also demonstrates a club setting, helping new leaders recognize their responsibilities during each segment. You'll role play as both children and leaders during this time.
318	Maximizing Parent Power	Facilitator Wade Chlopek	Everyone
	The involvement of parents has greater potential to transform your Awana club than any other single factor. Can you imagine if all the parents of kids in your handbook group worked with their children at home so they would be prepared each week? Learn (via video) from an expert on how this can happen in your club.
Kidz Jr. 324	Discipleship and Spiritual Growth in Sparks	Karl Sauter	Sparks
	Bringing about spiritual transformation in younger children won't just happen. We have to know what the Creator intended, and what it takes to bring about the changes necessary to transform. How do you do this with your younger children? Come learn how to focus on three things to transform the lives of your small group of early elementary kids.

At the end of Workshop 2, please head directly to the Stage 3 Auditorium (Building B) for the General Session.
 General Session – 10:55am-12:15pm
 Lunch – 12:15 – 1:00pm – Please no food in the classrooms. Thank you!

ROOM	TITLE/DESCRIPTION	PRESENTER	FOCUS
Chapel 250	The New Memorization Study Bible	Tom Meyer	Everyone
	Technology has information at our fingertips, but our relationship with God needs to be one of the heart, not the smartphone. Get engaged with the Word of God in a refreshing and amazing new way: The Memorization Study Bible. Memorize verses, chapters, and even whole books of the New Testament using powerful techniques learned in Jerusalem.
251	Small Groups that Transform Lives	Dwight Hunnicutt	T&T
	Can you lead a small group of older elementary age kids that transforms their lives into disciples of Jesus? How could this work? Come discover how spiritual transformation is a journey that looks different for each child. It is not a list of things you do, but rather a godly relationship you build.
252	Why Clubs Have Parents Signing Sections For Their Own Children	Yvonne Wadleigh	Pastors, Kidmin Staff Awana Ministry Directors
	What?! Parents can sign off sections? Yes! But how? Have you been looking for ideas to better engage parents in the discipling of their children? If so, come discover how the challenging journey of one club resulted in stronger ministry to clubbers, and more engaged and fulfilled leaders. Have questions? Like, how did they train the parents? What about awards, record-keeping, accountability? Don't miss this opportunity to be challenged by and equipped with a new method for life-long discipleship.
253	The Well-Disciplined Club in 2018	John Flowers	Everyone
	We want the best for the children who attend our club, but sometimes we're faced with kids who challenge the rules. Here's how to look behind the child's behavior and discover the "why." This workshop also addresses both minor and severe behavioral issues and looks at the biblical pattern of discipline from 2 Timothy 2:15. Come learn how to create an environment of consistency, excitement, and energy.
255	Journey Students: Let's Talk About Being 'Witnesses'	Harry Briley	Journey Students
	Hey Journey Students! Is this you? - Why am I scared to death to talk about Jesus with my friends? When does it become MY faith versus my Christian home life? How should I handle those really BORING books of the Bible? What should I do when schoolwork impacts my personal time with Jesus? How can I resolve the tough atheist questions posed on Social media? Be there, okay?

256	Awana For All Children: Special Needs	Kathy Chamberlain	Everyone
	When we minister to children in our Awana Clubs, we also minister to the whole family. This is especially important to a family that has a child with special needs. This workshop will discuss how we can create the best learning environment for ALL.
314	Sharing the Gospel with Preschool Children	Sandi Flowers	Preschool, Puggles, Cubbies
	Even little ones are anxious to learn about the Gospel message. In this workshop we will explore what keeps us from sharing the gospel with preschoolers and younger children and why it is so important for us not to skip over this age group. We will also explore creative age-appropriate activities to use when sharing the gospel message.
316	Preschool / Kindergarten Play Time and Activities	Marlene Hunnicutt	Cubbies, Sparks Game Directors
	For Cubbies and Kindergarten Sparks. Do you enjoy play time with your preschoolers and kindergartners? Do your kindergarten Sparks seem overwhelmed playing with the bigger 1st/2nd graders? Come join us for new and exciting Play Time ideas - be ready to get up and move! You'll depart with a whole lot of new ideas for your little ones.
Kidz Planet Auditorium 317	Awana Basics Large Group Time & Small Group Time	Sharon Yen Sidney Yen	New Leaders, Veteran Leaders who want refresher training
	This workshop will explain the purpose of Large Group Time to help leaders develop strategies in presenting effective, impactful lessons. This workshop will also equip leaders with an understanding of how to run a healthy small group, with a goal to make life-long disciples of Jesus
318	Toolbox to Lead Others to Christ	Cindy Vesperman	Everyone
	During this session, you will learn simple tools for leading others to Christ. These methods are easy to remember and really work. Yes – God will use you to lead someone to Christ! Join us for this fun-filled, life-changing time of hands-on learning.
Kidz Jr. 324	Finding Hope in Jesus, Leaders, and Children	Karl Sauter	Everyone
	What do you think children see and hear about the world they live in? Children aren't oblivious to the destruction around them, yet we simply can't allow ourselves to get lost in the hopelessness of the world. Discover the hope to which God has called you and your role as an Awana leader to show children how God provides hope.
